Report on Entrepreneurship Development and Start Up

The Guest lecture on "Entrepreneurship Development and Start Up" was organised on 17th Feb'2020, for third year students of B. Sc. (CS) and BBA (CA). Resource persons were Mr. Aditya Bavadekar Vice President (Dept of Business Administrator), MITCON, Mr. Ganesh Khamgal, Speaker, Chief Manager MITCON. Mr. Ganesh Khamgal motivated students to develop entrepreneur's skills and added if you have an entrepreneur's mindset or willing to do hard work then success is very near. The speaker talked about her experiences and made it clear that being an entrepreneur doesn't always mean starting something from scratch or making every business term into an acronym. In addition, he talked about what makes a start-up successful and presented the findings of a study in this regard.

Positive feedback was received from the students. Around 90 students from third year B. Sc. (CS) and BBA (CA) attended the lecture. Certificates of participation and attendance were distributed to the students.

Report on How to Make Research Project Workshop

Date: 29th February, 2020

Time: 10.00 am

Venue: Auditorium, MMCC Pune.

Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce organised a workshop on "How to Make a Research Project" on February 29, 2020. With esteemed guest speaker Dr. M. D. Lawrence. The workshop aimed to provide students with insights and guidance on the process of conducting research projects effectively

1. Introduction to Research: Dr. Lawrence commenced the session with an overview of the significance of research in academia and beyond. He emphasized the importance of research in expanding knowledge, solving problems, and contributing to the advancement of society.
2. Understanding Research Components: The speaker delved into the essential components of a research project, including the research question, literature review, methodology, data collection, analysis, and conclusion. He elucidated the significance of each component and how they contribute to the coherence and validity of the research.
3. Choosing a Research Topic: One of the crucial aspects discussed was selecting an appropriate research topic. Dr. Lawrence provided strategies for choosing relevant and feasible research topics aligned with students' interests and academic requirements.
4. Research methodologies: Different research methodologies were used, including qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods approaches. The speaker explained the strengths and limitations of each methodology and how to choose the most suitable one based on the research objectives.
5. Literature Review: The importance of conducting a comprehensive literature review was emphasized. Dr. Lawrence guided students on how to search for relevant literature, critically analyses existing studies, and synthesize information to inform their research.
6. Data Collection & Analysis: Practical aspects of data collection techniques and analysis methods were discussed. The speaker provided insights into various data collection tools and statistical techniques, empowering students to make informed choices based on their research requirements.

7. Ethical Consideration: The workshop also addressed ethical considerations in research, including obtaining informed consent, ensuring confidentiality, and adhering to ethical guidelines. Dr. Lawrence stressed the significance of ethical conduct in maintaining the integrity of research outcomes.
8. Writing & presenting Research: Tips for effective research writing and presentation skills were shared. Students were guided on how to structure their research papers, present findings coherently, and engage their audience during presentations.

Conclusion:

The workshop on "How to Make a Research Project" by guest speaker Dr. M. D. Lawrence was highly informative and beneficial for the 102 students in attendance. It equipped them with essential knowledge and skills required to embark on research endeavours effectively. The interactive nature of the session fostered engagement and encouraged students to actively participate in the learning process. Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce extends its gratitude to Mr. Lawrence for his invaluable contribution to enhancing student's research capabilities.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The programme was started at 10.00 am on Monday, 18th May 2020 as per the schedule on the ZOOM MEETING APPLICATION. The webinar was inaugurated by the Chief Guest Hon. Shri Uday Samant, Minister, Higher Education, Govt. of Maharashtra, Guest of Honour Hon. Shri Amitabh Kant, Chief Executive Officer, NITI Aayog, and Guest of Honour Hon. Dr. Nitin Karmalkar, Vice-Chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University. Also the invitees of inaugural programme Dr. Parag Kalkar, Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Prin. B.G. Jadhav, Executive President, Marathwada Mitra Mandal were also present (virtually) for the inaugural programme.

Chief Guest Hon. Shri Uday Samant, Minister, Higher Education, Govt. of Maharashtra, congratulated the organizers for conducting two days National Webinar on the important topic of 'Patent, Copyright, Trademark & GI (Intellectual Property Rights)'. He appreciated the efforts taken by Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, Pune and Faculty of Commerce & Management, Savitribai Phule Pune University to educate the faculties about the said topic during the pandemic situation of COVID-19. Many developed countries are highly contributing towards this area and the private autonomies are generating money through the knowledge and application of Intellectual Property Rights; also they spend this money to educate their students in a better way, Shri Samant said. Maharashtra is a land of scholars he added; He also gave the examples of Gopalkrishna Gokhale, Lokmanya Tilak, Swatantryaveer Savarkar, Pu. La. Deshpande etc., while expressing his views.

He also recognized the contribution of Saint Dnyaneshwar for writing Dnyaneshwari – An eternal source of knowledge. He also congratulated to the team of speakers for contributing their efforts towards the programme. He also expressed his gratitude towards Mr. Amitabh Kant sir for motivating the organizers. Also he assured the university and college authorities that he will definitely motivate them by his presence and guidance in future as well.

Guest of Honour Hon. Shri Amitabh Kant, Chief Executive Officer, NITI Aayog, also inaugurated the programme. In his very recent article Published on 12th May, 2020 on Intellectual Property Rights has mentioned that India should aim to grow as one of the improved IPR nations to the number one IPR nation in the world. He said that; 'I have always emphasized that Indian universities should acquire strong IP policy like western countries adopted and become self sustainable. If Oxford University is earning billion of rupees through IPR, then why not the Oxford of East i.e. Savitribai Phule Pune University.' I suggest and request the academicians and all participants who are attending the webinar please be a contributor to the nation as IP creator and commercialization thereafter. Let us use IPR as a tool to develop the economy of the nation, he added. He also mentioned the contribution of Prof. Ganesh Hingmire towards the field of IPR. He wished a great success to the organizers for all the future endeavors and great success for the two days National Webinar on IPR.

Hon. Prin. Bhausaheb.G. Jadhav, Executive President, Marathwada Mitra Mandal, sir first of all expressed his gratitude towards the special invitees of the program. Sir mentioned that in tune with the advancement in the technology the college has taken initiatives to organize such webinar and he also was very happy to be a part of it. Even in such tough times with the help of such advanced technology we can continue to add in our knowledge it is a remarkable activity, he said. He also requested Hon. Shri Uday Samant, Minister, Higher Education, Govt. of Maharashtra and Hon. Dr. Nitin Karmalkar, Vice-Chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University to motivate more teachers and students to organize and also to be a part of more of such webinars to built in the state of knowledge among the teaching fraternity as many of them may not be aware about such facilities to reach their students. Even the buildings of schools and colleges are closed the teachers should be confident enough to educate their students through such webinars, he added.

Dr. Parag Kalkar, Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management, Savitribai Phule Pune University has been associated with the college since the inception of the idea to be taken into consideration to organize such webinar. Sir said that hr NIRF ranking has raised the importance of IPR also the Government Policy of IPR 2016 has made a huge impact on it. He said that, these two days National Webinar will definitely enlighten the faculties towards the field of IPR to have a deep thought to get trigger to start thinking in this directions. In the field of commerce and management there are less IPs as compared to science & technology, he said. This webinar will be the first step to come closer to the activity to develop our own IPR, he added.

Hon. Dr. Nitin Karmalkar, Vice-Chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Sir said that it is a privilege to be a part of such an informative activity during the current situation. Being a teaching fraternity many of us are working for enhancing our knowledge by taking part in such events. He also spoke about the role of the university also the challenges faced by the universities and colleges during such uneven conditions. He further explained that how various universities are adding their efforts in the field of research by innovating and manufacturing different tools like ventilators, masks, vaccinations etc to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic situation; and here there is a need of IPR he said. He also spoke about the first IPR policy adopted by the government. He said that, UGC has announced that every university should generate a course of IPR to understand it in a better way. Many students are coming up with great ideas of innovation and these efforts are also appreciated by the universities he added. On the other hand all these students should get much knowledge about the IPR so that they can direct their efforts in socially beneficial way. Eventually there can be a push to more innovative activities during such emergency. Day to day the number of COVID-19 positive patients are increasing day-by-day, to cope up with this many universities along with the Savitribai Phule Pune University has developed a mathematical model which will be definitely helpful to forecasting the number of ventilators and other facilities needed. He appreciated the initiative taken by Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, Pune and Faculty of Commerce and Management, Savitribai Phule Pune University for organizing such a webinar.

The vote of thanks of the inaugural programme was presented by Dr. Devidas Golhar, Principal, Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, Pune. Sir mentioned that the topic was encountered after knowing about the survey done by the organization called 'Ironforge' a premier organization in IPR and Patenting. The survey revealed that just 5% of the total respondents of the survey were having the real understanding the value of IPR, he added. Sir said that, this webinar will definitely prove to be fruitful for all the participants. He expressed his gratitude towards all the special invitees for their presence in the webinar. Also sir expressed his gratitude towards the knowledge partner Savitribai Phule Pune University. He thanked the authority members of Marathwada Mitra Mandal for their valuable presence.
