REPORT ON MARATHI BHASHA SANVARDHAN PANDHARWADA AND GRANTHDINDI

(Marathi Language Enrichment Fortnight and Book Procession)

Date: 16/01/2020

Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, under the directives of SPPU, proudly hosted Marathi Bhasha Sanvardhan Pandharwada from January 1st to January 15th, 2020. Organized by the NSS Unit and Student Development Center, the event aimed to promote the enrichment of the Marathi language while fostering social awareness.

Guided by Asst. Prof. Amol Chaudhari (Student Development Officer) and Asst. Prof. Sushil Gangane, a series of engaging competitions and cultural activities took place. A key highlight of the fortnight was "Granthdindi" (It is a cultural event where people, often students, parade with books to promote reading, literature, and the importance of preserving linguistic heritage), a literary procession emphasizing the importance of reading and preserving Marathi literature. The event saw enthusiastic participation from over 120 students and 20 faculty members, who showcased traditional folk dances and cultural performances, reinforcing the rich heritage of the Marathi language.

Held at Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, this celebration served as a meaningful platform to uphold linguistic pride and contribute to a social cause through cultural expression.

REPORT ON ONE DAY SPECIAL CAMP AT KADEPATHAR

Date:17/02/2020

NSS Special Camp at Kadepathar Jejuri is located in the Purandar taluka of Pune district, Maharashtra, India. The area's postal code is 412303 for a Plastic-Free Holy Site.

The NSS unit of MMCC, Deccan, Pune, in collaboration with the Office of the Joint Charity Commissioner, Pune, organized a one-day special camp at Kadepathar Jejuri on February 16, 2020. The primary objective of this community-driven initiative was to free the sacred surroundings of this revered site from plastic waste, contributing to environmental conservation.

Kadepathar Jejuri is located approximately 55 km from the MMCC campus, situated along the Pune-Saswad-Pandharpur Road. It is home to the renowned temple of Lord Khandoba, a significant pilgrimage site attracting numerous devotees. Recognizing the need to preserve the sanctity of this holy place, NSS volunteers took an active role in ensuring a cleaner and more sustainable environment.

Under the guidance of Hon. Shri. Dilip Deshmukh, Joint Charity Commissioner, Pune, a dedicated team of 55 NSS volunteers, accompanied by four faculty members—Asst. Prof. Sushil Gangane (Program Officer, NSS), Asst. Prof. Pravin Kad, and Asst. Prof. Ashwini Kitekar—participated in this noble cause. Their collective efforts aimed at raising awareness among visitors and local communities about the detrimental impact of plastic pollution while promoting responsible waste management practices.

This initiative exemplified the commitment of NSS volunteers towards social responsibility and environmental sustainability, reinforcing the importance of preserving sacred spaces for future generations.

REPORT ON TREE PLANTATION ON 'PALAKHI MARG'

Date:24/06/2019

NSS Volunteers Participate in Guinness World Record Tree Plantation on Palkhi Marg (specifically referring to the route taken by devotees entourage during procession)

On June 23, 2019, Savitribai Phule Pune University organized a Guinness World Record attempt for a large-scale tree plantation activity along Palkhi Marg, (Dehu Alandi to Pandharpur route around 223 km ) a historically significant route associated with the annual Wari pilgrimage. This initiative aimed to enhance environmental sustainability and promote community participation in afforestation efforts.

A total of 43 NSS volunteers from Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce actively took part in this record-setting event. Their dedicated contribution helped in planting an astounding 15,600 trees in a single day, marking a significant step towards ecological conservation.

This massive plantation drive took place along Palkhi Marg, a sacred route traversed by thousands of devotees during the Wari procession. Recognizing the cultural and environmental significance of this location, volunteers worked tirelessly to ensure a greener and healthier landscape for future generations.

This initiative underscored the commitment of NSS volunteers towards community service, environmental awareness, and sustainable development, aligning with the university's broader vision of ecological responsibility.

REPORT ON RALLY ON 31ST DECEMBER

Date: 2/01/2020

NSS Special Rally for Awareness on Substance Abuse at Goodluck Chowk is located in the Pune City taluka of Pune district, Maharashtra. The area falls under the postal code 411004.

On December 31, 2019, the NSS Unit of Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of Commerce, in collaboration with Anandvan Vyasank Mukti Kendra, organized a special rally to spread awareness on the eve of the new year. The rally, aimed at promoting a healthy and addiction-free lifestyle, commenced from the college campus and proceeded to Goodluck Chowk, a prominent and bustling location in Pune.

Around 90 students enthusiastically participated in the rally, delivering the impactful message of "Drink Milk, Not Wine." To engage the public effectively, NSS volunteers also performed a street play and a flash mob at Goodluck Chowk, capturing the attention of passersby and reinforcing the cause of addiction prevention.

The event was graced by the presence of several dignitaries, including Shri K. Venkatesham (Commissioner of Police, Pune), Shri Girish Bapat (MLA, Pune), and Shri Murlidhar Mohol (Mayor, Pune Municipal Corporation). Their support highlighted the importance of youth-led initiatives in fostering social responsibility.

This unique awareness activity garnered extensive media coverage, with representatives from various news houses and newspapers documenting the event. The rally stood as a powerful example of community-driven efforts towards a healthier and addiction-free society.
