GMAT/GRE Preparation Session

The primary objective of the GMAT/GRE Preparation Session held on November 4, 2018, was to provide students with essential guidance and resources to excel in their GMAT (Graduate Management Admission Test) and GRE (Graduate Record Examination) exams. These exams are crucial for students aspiring to pursue graduate studies, particularly in fields like business, management, and other related disciplines. A total of 40 enthusiastic students participated in the preparation session. These students hailed from diverse academic backgrounds and had a shared goal of enhancing their skills and knowledge to perform exceptionally well in the GMAT and GRE exams.

The session commenced with an introduction to the GMAT and GRE exams, including their significance in the admissions process for graduate programs. This included insights into the sections, question types, and scoring mechanisms, Test Format and Structure.

The feedback received from the participants was overwhelmingly positive. Many expressed appreciation for the informative content, practical strategies and interactive nature of the session.
