The MMCC Connect Initiative

The college has taken `Connect initiative` in order to ensure the mental health of all and most importantly the students. Under which various activities were conducted. In tune with the earlier series of sessions, the team of Outlive has conducted another series of Orientations and Workshops, in which the students of various programs participated with a large number. The orientations and workshops were conducted during 2nd, 3rd, & 4th March in which approximately 500 students attended the orientations and more than 200 students participated in the intensive workshops. The motto “welfare of the masses” is deeply ingrained in the ethos of MMCC. As situated in a hub of education and intellectual discourse in the heart of the city, the college plays a pivotal role in shaping the future of society by championing principles of social equity and inclusivity. In this vibrant academic environment, the welfare of the masses is not merely theoretical but a practical endeavor embraced by students and educators alike. MMCC strives through inclusivity, and open access for all in its educational policies and priorities, especially for first-generation learners from the underprivileged strata of society. The college management, and administration, provide financial assistance, concessions in admission fees, and flexibility in terms of financial procedures for needy, underprivileged students.

Through the ‘community outreach programs’, research initiatives, and advocacy efforts, MMCC actively engages with pressing societal issues, striving to uplift marginalized communities, promote sustainable development, and foster a culture of empathy and solidarity. By prioritizing the welfare of the masses, MMCC exemplifies a commitment to nurturing responsible citizens dedicated to building a more just and compassionate society.

The welfare of the masses through quality education is seriously considered an apex-level social responsibility and priority at MMCC.
